Due to the overwhelming success of last year's inaugural event, the Pat and Phyllis Memorial Golf Tournament is back for a third year!

Once again, the tournament has returned to Strawberry Farms Golf Club, and with the continued support of the OCC Baseball Family, this year's event will once again honor two wonderful people who were taken away from us too soon.

"That time was such an emotional event and to see how many people came out to enjoy themselves, there was no way we couldn't put this event on again," OCC head coach John Altobelli said. "It's a fun tournament because not only do people play at one of the nicest golf courses in Southern California, but we also are able to relive some fond memories of these two wonderful people and sharing great times with great friends for the day. It was too good an experience to do just once."

At last year's event, over 120 golfers made it to Strawberry Farms and throughout the day, were able raise over $30,000, which will go toward putting up a Pat and Phyllis memorial snack bar and restroom facility at OCC's Wendall Pickens Field.

Plenty of supporters from last year's tournament have returned for 2009, and with the success of the 2008 event, lots of new sponsors and participants are expected for this year.

"We hope to see you out there," Altobelli said. "It's going to be a day of golf, great memories, great friends and a bunch of laughs."

On May 7, 2006, Pat Altobelli, mother of head baseball coach John Altobelli, passed away at her home with her family by her side at the age of 70.

Tragically, just two days later, Phyllis Reuber, Coach Alto's mother-in-law, passed away following surgery to fix a blood clot. She was only 54 years old.

"The day that my mom passed away, I knew I needed to do something for her at the field because she always was there rooting the Pirates on and all of the players loved her. She always complained along with my wife and many others, about the new field not having any bathrooms. So I'm hoping that we can generate enough funds to rebuild a new facility in both Pat and Phyllis' name for a new bathroom/snack bar which will be located behind home plate at OCC's new renovated field.

I'm hoping to make this an annual event that alumni, friends and supporters of Orange Coast College Baseball will pull together and help us cope with these tragic events. With your help and support, you will show that OCC had at least a little impact in your life or your son's life and you can help make this dream of mine a reality. This facility can help let Pat and Phyllis know they can continue to overlook the field as future Pirates continue to pursue their goals and dreams. I hope you can make this a special event, year-in and year-out. Please join us at Strawberry Farms for a day of golf, food, beverages and, more importantly, laughs."
