

CSU SPRING 2010 ANNOUNCEMENT (7/9/09)

Orange Coast College was informed on 7/9/09 that the Cal State University has announced their "Campuses [will] not accept any admission applications for the 2010 spring term (quarter or semester) for any enrollment category."

This means that all CSU campuses will be closed for all majors and all applicant categories (lower division, upper division/graduate/international/freshmen).

In addition, the CSU is immediately closing applications for any campuses that were accepting 2010 winter applications, and only those students who had applied by 7/6/09 and are upper division transfer applicants will be reviewed.

www.csumentor.edu will be updated accordingly within the next few days.
