- FAQs
1. Go to www.mycoast.cccd.edu and Enter your User Name and Temporary Password.

You will receive your User Name and Temporary Password once your Admissions Application has been processed. Your Temporary Password is your Date of Birth in the MMDDYY format.

For example: February 1, 2007 would be entered as: 020107.

NOTE: If you already have a MyGWC or MyCCC account, you would NOT create a new password for your MyOCC account as shown above, you would just use the same Password you created for that account for your MyOCC login.

2. Then you should get the “Password Expired” message. Create a new Password.

Passwords must be between 8 and 20 characters and cannot be all alpha or all numeric. You must have a mix.

3. Then you should be asked to provide an alternate email address. This is used for password reset purposes only. Enter an Alternate Email Address (your personal email not your campus G-mail account).

4. Log into that Alternate Email Address within 24 hours, locate the email we send you for validation and complete the validation process or the automated Forgot Password process will not be available for you if you should need it in the future. If you don’t see our email in your inbox, please be sure to check your spam or junk mail folder. If you don’t complete the validation process within 24 hours of providing the alternate email account, you would need to resubmit your alternate email and then make sure to login to that other account and open the most recent email to finalize the process. If you try to validate from one of the older emails we sent you for the process, you will receive an error message.

Is mycoast.cccd.edu the Correct URL? Am I on the right page? -

MyOCC, MyCCC and MyGWC are all part of the Coast Community College District and all logins go to the same site, which is the MyCoast site. So, yes, you are on the correct page!

Did you know? -

You may qualify for financial aid to assist with your enrollment fees! Many students qualify for the Board of Governor’s Fee Waiver (BOGW), which waives the per unit enrollment fee. Also, students who qualify for the BOGW do not pay more than $30 for their parking pass. You may apply at: www.fafsa.ed.gov, our school code is 001250. Please allow 10 business days from the date you submit the FAFSA application for the application to be receive and processed.

The BOGW does not waive the health fee, the college service fee or any material fees (if your class has one). If you qualify for the BOGW, you would still be responsible to pay these fees, and if fees are not paid before the drop deadline, you may be dropped for non-payment from your classes and any waitlisted classes.

When is my registration appointment? -

1. Click on the Student Tab.
2. In the “Registration Tools” channel, Click on “Registration Status.”
3. Select a Term (ex: OCC Spring 2014), then Click on “Submit.”
4. Your Registration Appointment time will appear – the “From Date” is your Appointment Time. You can register any time after this date and time, up until the day the class starts. After the class starts, you will need an Add Authorization Code to add yourself into the class.

How do I register for classes?

1. Click on the Student Tab.
2. Click on “Add or Drop Classes.”
3. Select a Term (ex: OCC Spring 2014), then Click on “Submit.”
4. Enter the CRN (Course Reference Number) from the Class Schedule (APDF version is available on the OCC website then Click on “Finalize Add/Drop.”

If you do not have the Class Schedule, you can click on “Class Search” at the bottom of the page to search the online Class Schedule.

a. Enter your Search Criteria (such as the course Subject – but, do not use too many parameters, you may not get any results if the class does not exactly match what you select), then
b. Click on the “Class Search” button at the bottom of the page.

c. Click in the Checkbox* in front of the class you wish to add, then
d. Click on “Register” to submit the course for Registration. If you wish to continue searching for other classes, Click on the “Add to Worksheet” button instead. When finished selecting your classes, click on “Finalize Add/Drop.”

* A “C” in front of the class means the class is closed/full and, if there is a waitlist available, it is also full. If it says Waitlisted it means the class is full, but there is a waitlist and there are still spaces available if you wish to place yourself on the waitlist. Not all classes have a waitlist. See further information regarding the waitlist process in the How do I put myself on a waitlist? section of this guide.

NOTE: If you encounter a Registration Add Error while trying to register, click on the HELP link for an explanation of the error.
5. Verify your registration, and then Click on “Pay Now” to view and/or pay your fees. For instructions on the Pay Now process, please refer to the How do I check on my account and/or pay fees? section of this guide.

How do I put myself on the waitlist?

1. To add yourself to a waitlist, make a note of the CRN you wish to add.

2. Follow instructions from How do I register for classes? steps 1 through 4 from above.

3. After you click on the Finalize Add/Drop button, you will receive the Waitlisted message, if you wish to place yourself on a waitlist, you would Change the Action to Waitlisted and then Click on the Finalize Add/Drop button. Classes with lecture/lab co-requisites will have a waitlist option on the lab section only and NOT on the lecture section. Please note: if you are attempting to add a class that has both a lecture and a lab component, you need to input both CRNs, but you will only get waitlisted on the lab component!

4. The class will now show as Waitlisted on your Current Schedule.
5. Your waitlist position is viewable on the Student Tab from the Student Detail Schedule link.

6. Your waitlisted courses will also show as waitlisted classes on your Student Class Program (Web Schedule Bill), which is considered as your official print-out. There is a link to it on the Student Tab.

You are not charged for the waitlisted class until such time that you actually get registered into the class!

I put myself on a waitlist, now what do I do? -

When a seat becomes available in a class that has a waitlist, the first person on the waitlist is notified via their MyOCC student G-mail account. This notice will not be sent to the student’s personal email account. (If you need instructions on how to get to your MyOCC G-mail account, please refer to the How do I find my OCC G-mail account? section in this guide.) When you receive the email, you only have 24 hours from the time the email is sent to add yourself to the class or you will get dropped from the waitlist and the next person on the waitlist is offered the seat and so on until either someone adds the class or the waitlist empties.

If the waitlist is full at the time you try to add the class, you may wish to keep checking every so often to see if space opens back up, if it does, you would be able to add yourself to the waitlist at that time. Once you put yourself on a waitlist, you should check your MyOCC G-mail account a couple of times a day to check for that notice to make sure you do not miss your 24 hour window to register.

If you receive a waitlist notification that a space has become available to you, and you wish to add the class:

1. Go to the Student Tab, Click on the Add/Drop Classes link.
2. Select the Appropriate Term, then Click on Submit.
3. In your Current Schedule, you will find the class for which the email notice was received; it should say “Waitlisted on XXXXXX” in the Status column in the front, with XXXXXX representing the date you got put on the waitlist (Feb. 25, 2014 in the example shown above). Click in the Action Drop Down menu and Select the Web Registered option.

NOTE: To avoid any potential registration errors, do not try to register for any other courses at the same time you are adding yourself into a class you were waitlisted in, unless you are adding a class that has both a lecture and a lab CRN! If the class has both a lecture and a lab section, you may only waitlist for the lab section. After you select the Web Registered option for the lab section, you will need to input the lecture CRN in the box below the “CRN’s” area and then go to step 4.

4. Then Click on the Finalize Add/Drop button.

5. Once your status shows as Web Registered, make sure you pay your fees. Please see the “How do I check on my account and/or pay fees?” section of this manual.

If, at the time you receive a notice that a spot has become available in the class, you no longer wish to add the class:

1. Follow Steps 1 through 3 above, but in the drop down box as described in step 3, Select the Drop option.

2. Then Click on the Finalize Add/Drop button. Doing this helps move the waitlist process along for the others on the waitlist. If you don’t do this process, you will be dropped from the list anyway after the 24 hour period.
How do I access my student G-mail account?

Your campus email address is the same as your MyOCC account username with @student.cccd.edu after it. You can access it from the Home Tab in your MyOCC account. There are also links in the upper right hand corner on many of the other screens. Just look for the email icon and click on it.

How do I re-add a class after I dropped or got dropped?

You will only be able to re-add yourself to a class if:

1. The class has not already started, and if
2. The class is still open, and if
3. The class is not already waitlisted.

Before the start of the class:

1. Follow the steps in “How do I register for a class?”.
2. If there was space available in the class, your status will show as Web Registered.
3. If you receive a Registration Add Error, click on the HELP link for an explanation of the error.
4. If the class is closed, but you receive a message that the class is waitlisted, it means there is still space available on the waitlist. If you wish to place yourself on the waitlist, follow the steps in “How do I put myself on a waitlist?”.

After the class starts:

1. You would need to get an Add Authorization Code from the instructor of the class in order to add yourself into the class.
2. See the How do I get and use an Add Authorization Code? Section for instruction on this process.

How do I get an Add Authorization Code?

Add Authorization Codes are only available and will only work once the class begins. They will not work before the day the class begins.

For On-campus Classes:

You would go to the first class meeting and let the instructor know you would like to petition the class. If the instructor feels there is space available in the class for you to join, he or she will give you an “Add Permit” with an “Add Authorization Code”. You would then add yourself into the class online with the Add Code. Please refer to the “How to add a class using an Add Authorization Code:” instructions.

For Online Classes:
Email the instructor on the Monday of the week the class starts and request an add permit. If the instructor feels he or she can accept you as a petitioner, you will receive an email back with the Add Authorization Code. You would then add yourself into the class online with the Add Code. If you do not hear back from the instructor, it may mean that they are not able to accept any more petitioners for the class.

How to add a class using an Add Authorization Code:

1. Follow the steps 1 through 4 in the How do I register for classes? section.

2. If there is a waitlist and if there is still space available on the waitlist, you should receive this screen:

!Add Authorization Code Screen

3. Enter the Add Authorization Code in the box as shown, then

4. Click on the "Validate" button.

5. Click on the "Submit" button to register the class. Make sure you pay your fees after you get registered into your classes!

If, for any reason, you are unable to add yourself into the class through your MyOCC account, you can come to the Enrollment Center to receive assistance as long as the instructor completed all the information on the “Add Permit” and signed and dated the permit. If you need to come to the Enrollment Center to get added, you will need a government issued photo ID, such as a driver’s license or student ID card and the completed/signed/dated Add Permit. If you only have an email from the instructor with the code on it, make sure to print out and bring a copy of the email showing that the email came from the instructor’s OCC email account. Example: From: Andy Professor their email address would appear as: aprofessor@occ.cccd.edu. We cannot accept them from the instructor’s personal email account.

Your official grades are available approximately 10 business days after the end of a semester. Log In Password / Assistance (click title to go back to the top)
I am trying to log in, but it keeps saying User Name/Password Pair Not Found, what do I do?

If your account was just created, or you have just had your password reset, it may take anywhere from 24-48 hours for you to actually be able to login. Do not keep trying to get logged in, wait another hour or so before you try again. If you still have not been able to get logged in after 48 hours, you would need to submit a help desk ticket. Please refer to the instructions in the I forgot my user name and/or password, what do I do? section below.

If neither of the previous situations applies to you, it means that you are using the wrong user name or password or both. You can try Clicking on the Forgot Password? link. If you set up the email password recovery feature you will be able to recover your password yourself and get logged in. If you did not set up the email password recovery feature, you will need to submit a help desk ticket. Please refer to the instructions in the I forgot my user name and/or password, what do I do? section below.

I got logged into my account and am trying to access my transcripts or add/drop a class, etc. and another login screen comes up asking me for my login name and pin, what do I put in?

Actually, there isn’t anything you can put in that will allow you to login. You are getting this screen because you are behind a firewall that is preventing you from getting through to parts of our site. This most often happens when you are behind a firewall at work or some other public area that has a restrictive firewall set up. You would need to use another computer that is on a less restrictive network.

I created a login when I submitted my application online, why can’t I get logged into the MyOCC site with it?

The login you create when you submit an online application only works for when you are submitting an online application with any school that uses the services of CCCApply for their online application. It is not the same login as MyOCC.

I forgot my user name and/or password, what do I do?

You will need to submit a Help Desk ticket. To submit a Help Desk ticket you need to know your Student ID number. If you do not know your Student ID number, you will need to stop by the Enrollment Center office with a government issued photo ID, such as a driver’s license or passport. We will not release your student ID number over the phone.

To submit a Help Desk ticket:

1. Go to mycoast.cccd.edu and under the login area:
2. Click on the link to the Orange Coast College Technical Support page.
3. Click on the Submit a Help Desk Request button.
4. Select your correct role (student) – please note: selecting a role that does not apply to you may delay your request.
5. Select the Type of Request (Password or Login Help).
6. Complete all the information requested. Your Student ID is required so we can find your records, all the rest of the requested information is compared with what we have on file for you to verify the request is coming from the student.

7. Once the information has been verified you will receive an email advising you of what was done and that your password has been reset so that you may login. Please keep in mind that it could take up to 24 hours to get logged in after your password has been reset. If you don’t see a response in your inbox, check your spam folder, we are finding that a lot of our responses are getting filtered out as spam by some of the internet service providers.

8. DO NOT submit multiple Help Desk requests. This could create additional problems for you as one person may reset your account and then after you successfully get logged in, another person gets the next request and you end up getting locked out again when that person also resets your password.
