Check-in (Approx. 4:00 pm - 5:30 pm)
- Check-in (Lot F). Graduates must arrive BEFORE 4:45 p.m. Proceed to the “Graduates” line-up area near Lot F, to check-in and pick up your name card prior to joining the graduates' processional line-up. Please do not be late – this is your night to shine! The ceremony will take place inside of the Pacific Amphitheater.
  - Line-up: After check-in move to (Lot F) where colored flags will be hung on poles. Please choose a line and wait. You will receive a colored wristband to designate your group and row.
- Staging: You will begin to move to a staging area towards the Amphitheatre.

Commencement (Approx. 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm)
- Processional: You will begin to process (walk down the stairs) into the theater and into your assigned row.
- Ceremony: The opening speech will begin, followed by the National Anthem, Pledge of Allegiance, and various speakers.
- Receiving your Degree: You will be prompted to stand and move to the stage to accept your degree or certificate. Accept with your LEFT hand, as your RIGHT hand should be free for a handshake.
- Photography: Your photograph will be taken by professional photographers (1st) behind the stage and (2nd) onstage after receiving your degree. PLEASE DO NOT TAKE SELFIES ONSTAGE: this lengthens the ceremony.
- Ceremony Etiquette: Graduates are expected to silence their phones and remain in their seats for the duration of the ceremony.
- Towards the end of the ceremony, graduates will be instructed to “Move your Tassel”.
- At the completion of the ceremony, Graduates will exit the Amphitheater following Faculty and the Platform Party towards the Reception area for refreshments.

Grads & Guests Reception (Approx. 7:30 pm - 8:00 pm):
- Immediately following the ceremony, you can arrange to meet your guests and favorite professors at the reception.
- Take lots of photos and tag us.
