

Associate Degrees for Transfer (ADT) to CSU

Orange Coast College Transfer Center—Watson Hall 215

ADT degrees provide a transfer pathway after the completion of 60 units from a specific set of major and general education courses at OCC. Recipients of an ADT are guaranteed admission to the CSU system, but not to a particular campus or major. See a Counselor to discuss requirements and benefits of the ADT.

Is a “Similar Major” offered at your intended CSU campus?

Not all majors at the CSU are deemed “similar” to the community college ADT. To see whether your intended major is similar to the ADT at OCC, please see the most recent CSU Similar Degree database at: <http://adegreewithaguarantee.com/AboutTheProgram/FindYourPath.aspx>. For example, the Kinesiology major at OCC is similar to the Kinesiology - Sports Psychology and Leadership major at CSULB, but is not appropriate for the CSULB Kinesiology - Exercise Science major.

Is the major and/or campus impacted? Is the student in a CSU Local Admission Area?

Please see your OCC Counselor to help determine whether the ADT degree offers the best avenue for transfer based on Local Admission Area and Impaction status.

CSU Impacted programs information can be found at: <http://www.calstate.edu/sas/impactioninfo.shtml>.
