

PROGRAM OF STUDY

Art History Associate in Arts for Transfer

The Associate in Arts in Art History Degree for Transfer (AA-T), prepares students to transfer to the CSU campuses that offer bachelor's degrees in Art History. The Associates in Arts in Art History Transfer Degree educates students on the history of art and its function as a global language. The courses are designed to foster an understanding of visual communication through study in context, culture, social, political, economic and religious conditions in different historical eras. Students graduating with an Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer Degree are well positioned to complete a Bachelor's Degree in Art History with 60 units of upper-division coursework.

Education Code Section 66746-66749 states that students earning the Associate in Arts in Art History for Transfer Degree will be granted priority for admission to the Art History major at a local CSU, such as California State University Fullerton and others as determined by the CSU campus to which the student applies. This degree requires students to complete 60 CSU transferable units in the major with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher. Title 5 requires that students earn a grade of "C" or better in all major coursework.

Program Outcomes:

OUTCOME 1:
