

Black History Month Celebration Spring 2021

Co-sponsored by EOPS/Umoja, Equity, the Multicultural Center, and the International Multicultural Committee

February 10 (Wednesday): 3:00-4:30 PM

Orange County Black Chamber of Commerce Presentation: Black Financial Literacy
<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/93546296052>

Bobby McDonald will give a presentation which will focus on changing the Black narrative on how we view finances which includes the success of Black businesses that were the foundation of "Black Wall Street".

Bobby McDonald is the President and Executive Director of the Black Chamber of Commerce of Orange County

February 17 (Wednesday): 3:00-4:30 PM

Music of the African Diaspora: The Intersection between Music and Social Injustice
<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/93764952515>

Dr. McCurdy will provide a historical journey and contextualize how music has been used as a tool by enslaved Africans and later, African Americans to protest against social injustice.

Ronald C. McCurdy is Professor of Music in the Thornton School of Music at the University of Southern California (USC).

February 24 (Wednesday): 3:00-4:00 PM

It's Bigger Than Rap: The Fifth Element and the Black Radical Tradition
<https://cccconfer.zoom.us/j/97999429649>

Dr. Wind Woods will discuss the ways Hip Hop samples and extends key concepts of the Black Radical Tradition.

Wind Woods is a professor of Theater Arts at the University of Puget Sound.

Umoja promotes student success for all students through a curriculum that is responsive to the legacy of the African and African American Diasporas.

For Additional Information Contact:

Clyde Phillips, Professor of Counseling
cphillips@occ.cccd.edu

Jordan Stanton, Instructor of History
jstanton@occ.cccd.edu

Dr. Ron McCurdy

Dr. Wind Woods

Bobby McDonald

