

LGBTQIA+ HISTORY MONTH ACTIVISTS

MARSHA P. JOHNSON

An outspoken transgender rights activist and one of the central figures of the historic Stonewall uprising of 1969. Marsha P. Johnson helped form Street Transgender Action Revolutionaries (STAR), an organization that provided housing and other forms of support to homeless LGBTQIA+ youth in Manhattan.

Source: <https://www.nbcnews.com/feature/nbc-out/black-history-month-17-lgbtq-black-pioneers-who-made-history-n1130856>